LESSONS FOR EVERYONE

The Golf Academy @ Birdies & Buckets offers the very best in personalized instruction. Whether you need just one lesson or an ongoing series, our programs will help you achieve your goals. Each golf pro has been trained within the CPGA system and has his or her own unique style to help you improve.

We use a variety of training aids that will help you improve your game. One of the best aids available is the A-Star video analysis that lets us show you what your swing looks like and to really break things down and identify some areas that need to be worked on.
